NEXT HARD GAME AGAINST V. M. I.

A. & M. Squad Practices in Earnest for Battle in Richmond on November 8.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
West Raleigh, N. C., October 30.—After the Georgetown game last Thursday, the A. & M. football team was given a two days' holiday by the coaches, Friday and Saturday, but on Monday afternoon started in with good hard training again in preparation for the remainder of the schedule.

On Saturday afternoon the Wake Forest team will be played here, and although this will be a light game, the Baptists always put up a hard battle against the Techs.

The training from now on will be with a special view of getting the team in shape for the V. M. I. game which will be played in Richmond on November 8. This game promises to be one of the best to be played in this section, as V. M. I. always puts out a very fast eleven. Two years ago the Red and White took a trip up to Lexington with a very strong team, and confident of victory, but were surprised by the swift Lexington team, and suffered defeat by the score of 6 to 5. Last year A. & M. did not have a game with the Cadets. Although the Techs are confident of victory this year, they will not journey to Richmond with the feeling of overconfidence which proved their ruin two years ago, but with the firm determination to even up old scores and to fight a great battle.

It is understood that V. M. I. has steadily improved as the season has advanced. The A. & M. team has been in good condition all fall, and has been fortunate in escaping injuries until this week, when Fullback Tenney, one of the most complete ground-gainers on the team, hurt his shoulder, and will be out some time, and it is hoped the team will be in condition in time to play V. M. I. Osborne, substitute full back, has a broken rib, and Phillips, left end, has been out of the game several weeks on account of his shoulder being hurt. With the exception of a few minor injuries the rest of the team is in the best of condition.

The results were as follows:
Doubles: First round—McLaughlin and Hunniford defeated Lewis and Riddick, 6-3, 6-1. Smith and Jeter defeated Lapsley and Lyles, 6-3, 6-4.
Second round—Lyles and Spiegle beat McLaughlin and Hunniford, 6-1, 6-3. Smith and Jeter beat Gravelly and Dudley, 6-2, 6-5.
Third round—Smith and Jeter beat Spiegle and Lyles, 6-1, 4-6, 6-3.
Finals—Buckleton and Gish defeated Smith and Jeter, 6-0, 6-3, 6-4.
Singles: First round—Lapsley defeated Brown, 6-2, 6-4. Gish beat Smith, 6-2, 6-3. Buckleton beat Spiegle, 6-1, 6-2. Jeter beat Hunniford, 6-3, 6-1.
Semifinals—Gish beat Lapsley, 7-5, 6-1. Buckleton beat Jeter, 6-2, 6-1.
Finals—Buckleton vs. Gish, to be played off.

Tennis Tournament.
The young women's Christian Association tennis team will leave for Norfolk to-night on the Old Dominion steamer ship to play off the annual tennis tournament with the V. M. I. of that city.
Players representing the Richmond association are: Misses and Misses, Martha Hale and Kathleen Brown. Several members of the association will accompany the players and hope to bring back the trophy cup.

JOHNSON READY TO HEAR FULTZ

Head of American League Thinks Most of Players' Demands Are Just.

Chicago, October 30.—President Johnson of the American League, who returned today from a hunting trip in Northern Michigan, said he and all other members of the national committee had received a copy of the Players' Fraternity demands some time ago, and after reading them carefully he believed a great many seemed reasonable.

He thought an agreement would be reached on most of them in the coming meeting. He would, he would recognize Mr. Fultz, head of the players' union, if Mr. Fultz cared to address the meeting. Mr. Johnson said he was willing to listen to him. He added, however, that he would rather meet a player or a committee of players.

Mr. Johnson also intimated that it was the intention of the club owners to go far toward benefiting the players than the demands ask. In this respect Mr. Johnson referred to the transportation clause.

ORANGE AND BLACK HOPEFUL DESPITE POPULAR OPINION

McGugin, Realizing Vandy Is Second Choice, Makes Optimistic Statement.

East Lexington, Va., October 30.—The Vanderbilt team is in good condition with the exception of Brown, who will be unable to play. While most people feel that the team is unable to win from Virginia this year, the team is determined to put up a desperate battle and will not concede defeat unless it takes place.

Expect Reverse Odds.
The general thought expressed in the above interview was that the Commodore coach seemed to be the general opinion of the entire squad and the small number of students who accompanied the team. Realizing that the odds were against them, the team presented a determined effort to overcome all odds and defeat the University of Virginia in Charlottesville Saturday.

A late train prevented the squad, which arrived here this afternoon en route for the University of Virginia, from having time to do very short signal practice. There were eighteen players in the squad, including Tom Brown, who has a broken ankle, which he received in the Michigan game last Saturday. The team was not optimistic and the team is far from being as strong as the team that defeated Virginia last year. Seven new men are in the line-up, and from appearances the men will average less than 170. To-night they were quartered in the sample-room of the hotel, where they were given further instruction in the line of play that will be used against Virginia on Saturday.

A number of students accompanied the team and were frank to admit that the people of Nashville were expecting a Virginia victory. The team will leave to-morrow morning for Lynchburg, where they will spend the night, and then leave for Charlottesville Saturday morning.

Indians in Secret Work.
Carlisle, Pa., October 30.—Secret practice was again resorted to this afternoon by the football squad of the Carlisle Indian School. The immediate cause was the preparation for the game with the Carlisle team, some of which will be used against Georgia at Washington on Saturday, others at Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, a week later, and possibly in the Dartmouth game in New York.

They have played three games to date, and have won all three. Coach Stierding has been after them since the last game, and they are taking to some new plays, which they hope to work successfully at Fredericksburg.

On Thursday night, November 6, there will be a mass meeting at the Blues' quarters, at which time a track meet will be held. The Blues will be in the line-up for the game, and a team will probably be picked to start practice. The new gymnasium has been completed, and is ready to receive a large bunch of athletes.

In the four companies there are many good all-around athletes, and they are expected to get in the line-up. The Blues have always entered in all of the sports arranged in Richmond since the good many that are held in other cities. A good many well-known athletes, who have been in the night of the meeting, and they will explain the value of sports. A large crowd is expected to attend the athletic mass-meeting.
